

01 My lesson notes

Acts 17:16–34 · Can we disagree clearly and still honour a person?

Notes, sketches, connections and questions

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. A single vertical red line runs down the left side, creating a margin. The rest of the page is filled with evenly spaced horizontal grey lines. There are no markings or text on the page.

A reason from the passage I want to remember:

A question or response I may keep thinking about:

Use this page in the way that helps you. You may leave parts blank and keep personal reflections private.

02 Does respect require agreement?

Weigh the statement from Acts 17. These are provisional discussion positions, not a vote that

“If I respect someone, I must agree with their beliefs.”

Agree

What in Acts supports that position?

Disagree

What in Acts supports that position?

Needs clarification

Which word needs defining?

Listen and reconsider

Give a reason from Acts 17:16–31. With a partner, fairly explain this claim: “People make God what they want Him to be.” Prepare a respectful reply using verses 24–29. Return to the statement above and explain your conclusion.

Point to a position, speak or pass. Discuss the statement, without representing your family’s religion or assigning motives to a classmate.