02 Asha is joining the group

A fictional profile for our gallery. Choose a practical action that honours this person's dignity

Fictional Asha is new and still learning English. She wants to take part in thinking about the Bible. What could someone do to welcome her contribution patiently?

Choose one thing someone could say or do. Put your contribution beside this profile, or ask a willing scribe to write it.

Be ready to explain

Why does this person have worth before anyone knows their skills or achievements? Use Genesis 1:27.

03 Mr Dube is visiting

A fictional profile for our gallery. Choose a practical action that honours this person's dignity

Fictional Mr Dube is an older neighbour who enjoys listening to young people. Long meetings tire him. What respectful action could help without treating him as a child?

04 Neo wants to join in

A fictional profile for our gallery. Choose a practical action that honours this person's dignity

Fictional Neo uses a wheelchair and enjoys reading. The group is meeting in a different room. What could someone ask or arrange so Neo can participate, without taking over or making assumptions?
