

The king cannot silence God's word

Parent take-home · Jeremiah 36:1–8, 20–32

Focus statement

The LORD's true word cannot be cancelled by rejecting it, so we should hear His warning and turn to Him for mercy.

A message written again

Jeremiah spoke the LORD's message and Baruch wrote it. King Jehoiakim burned the scroll, but God had His words written again. The king could destroy the object; he could not cancel God's truth or his need for mercy.

Jeremiah 36:1–8, 20–32

Memory verse

For the word of the LORD is right, and all his work is trustworthy.
