

The king cannot silence God's word

Shared teaching picture

God sends His warning

Hear, turn from evil and receive forgiveness.

The king burns the scroll

He refuses the message he hears.

God gives His words again

The king has not cancelled the LORD's truth.

Jeremiah 36:1–8, 20–32

Join, roll and open again

Two strips make one paper scroll.

Join A to B. Keep both captions upright. Add a simple border, then roll the two ends loosely inwards. Open and explain.

Adult preparation: cut both solid outside rectangles. Put glue on A's shaded JOIN area, then place B's left end over that area. Press and let the join hold before rolling. No cutting on the dashed join line.

This modern paper scroll is a reminder. We do not burn, tear or pretend to destroy it.

Remember God's word

Shared memory verse · Listen, practise and explain.

For the word of the LORD is right,
and all his work is trustworthy.

Psalm 33:4, CSB

Rejecting God's word cannot make it untrue.
